

Prevention of sexualized violence against children

BEST-SELLING BOOK
16 000 copies
sold within the first year

Agota Lavoyer, Anna-Lina Balke

Is that okay?

A children's specialist book on preventing sexualized violence

73 pages, layout: 28 x 21 cm

⇒ from 6 years up

How do you talk about sexualized violence with children? And how can you protect them? Prevention succeeds best if it happens unagitatedly and regularly. Agota Lavoyer, expert on the topic of sexualized violence, and the illustrator Anna-Lina Balke prepare the topic in an age-appropriate way using familiar scenes and suitable questions. Through that, caregivers are able to engage in a conversation to check: Is that okay?

When big feelings cause a stomachache

BEST-SELLING BOOK
30 000
copies sold

Corinna Leibig

Tiny Tummy Ache

44 pages, layout: 22,5 x 18,5 cm

⇒ from 3 years up

Tiny Tummy Ache is sitting in his cave and has a really bad stomachache - „But where does that come from?“ is he asking himself. From eating too late or too fast? From all the rides on the rollercoaster? Or was it the fight with Tall Tummy Ache that made him so furious? Maybe it has something to do with this mean fear that gets hold of him sometimes ... A story for tiny humans with big feelings, which can often lead to a stomachache.

Fostering a Positive Attitude

Diana Nadal Millanes, Gabriel San Martín
Colorful Thoughts for Wollie the Sock
A children's specialist book about positive thinking

64 pages, layout: 21 x 21

Wollie the sock is due to be prepared for its future at Sock School: there's the washing machine carousel and height training for drying on the washing line. All the other socks are having great fun with the activities – only Wollie is full of negative thoughts. But thanks to the loving support of its teacher, the little sock begins to knit brave and cheerful thoughts.

⇒ from 3 years up

Donating blood is important!

Marcel Kahl, Elisabeth Wächter
A Blood Donation for Tilda
A children's specialist book about blood

57 pages, layout: 17 x 24

Whenever Nurse Lisa brings her a bag of blood for a transfusion at her hospital bedside, she infects Tilda with her cheerful mood. Whilst Tilda, clutching her bat soft toy, is still wondering who might have donated the blood this time, she begins to dream ... The Flattermann bat family is visiting Mimi the mosquito and her blood-sucking team today to donate blood.

⇒ from 4 years up

Bonding during childhood

Julia Schneider, Marlene Monzel

Ela, Elmo and the Magical Moments

A children's specialist book about bonding

52 pages, layout: 21 x 21 cm

⇒ from 4 years up

Ela has a friend who helps her to collect magical moments every day: Elmo. Elmo is her need for bonding and makes sure that Ela isn't by herself for too long. However, sometimes Ela's caregivers have no time, behave unfairly – or even just leave. Sometimes it is pretty difficult for Ela to get along with Elmo's big emotions ... A book about bonding, for everybody who misses someone every once in a while.

Including an interactive part for children and a specialist section for adults.

Falling asleep and sleeping through the night

Miriam Prätsch, Maike Prošoli

The Search For a Good Night Sleep

A children's specialist book about sleep and sleep hygiene

89 pages, layout: 21 x 21 cm

⇒ from 4 years up

Children actually need a lot of sleep. Koalas need even more! But it will absolutely not work for Stella and her fluffy friend, Karli. So obviously, they are terribly tired in the morning. Together they begin to search for this „good night sleep“ that everybody keeps wishing them. In this specialist children's book by numerous experts, children learn everything about sleep, sleeping types, and sleeping phases.

Children of mentally ill parents

Schirin Homeier

Sunny Sad Days

A children's specialist book for children of mentally ill parents

127 pages, layout: 24,7 x 16,5 cm

- ▶ sensitive explanations
- ▶ the standard reference on the topic
- ▶ already translated into 3 languages

⇒ from 7 years up

Death and grief

Andrea Hendrich, Bernadette Schmitt

Ben's Sunflowers

A children's specialist book about grief

55 pages, layout: 17 x 24 cm

- ▶ accompanies children through grief
- ▶ including a specialist section for children and parents
- ▶ also suitable for relatives and grief counselors

⇒ from 5 years up

Mabuse publishing house

The publishing house for all health topics

Since 40 years Mabuse publishing company releases books for a social and humane medicine and care work. We publish specialist and non-fiction books, guidebooks, field reports, and children's specialist books.

Our children's specialist book program includes more than 60 titles by now.

Children are especially vulnerable when families are thrown out of balance. With our lovingly illustrated books children are able to recognize themselves and their situations, understand connections, and find first aid out of their crisis. A specialist section for parents, educators, and other counselors offers profound knowledge on each topic and also psychological support concerning the interaction with children.

Hermann Löffler
(CEO)
hermann.loeffler@mabuse-verlag.de

Jana Puppala
(Rights and Licenses)
lizenzen@mabuse-verlag.de

www.mabuse-verlag.de

Mabuse-Verlag GmbH
Kasseler Str. 1 a
60486 Frankfurt am Main
Germany